Arrival of the Arago.

The steamship Arago arrived at New York yesterday, will be found under our telegraphic head. The Bank of England had raised its rate of interest to eight per cent, which is higher than it has been for many years. The Bank of France had raised its rate rate 7½ per cent. Breadstuffs were lower. Other news unimportant.

Iowa Election.

The Secretary of State furnishes the Keokuck Gate City the official returns from nearly all the counties in the State. Judge Lowe's majority in the State is a little over 2,000. The Legislature will stand—Senate—Republican 22; Democrats—Senate—Republican 41; Democrats 37; Doubtful 2. House—Republican 41; Democrats 37; Doubtful 2.

Chicago to Rollicks, Greeting.

On Friday last, the 30th, according to the report list of the Buffalo Express, some 20 vessels cleared by lake from Chicago, bearing from 40 to 60 tons each, 373,325 bushels of wheat, be sides 4,000 bbls. flour, 12,000 bushels of corn, 14,000 bushels of oats, and a vast amount of other produce. And still there is as much left where that came from.

Last Spring's Vote.

As a basis of comparison between the election in Chicago yesterday, and last Spring, we publish a table of the majorities cast for Mayor in the different Wards.

How to Quiet Them.

The Irish can behave themselves upon election day as decently as other men, when they know that certain punishment will follow their disorderly conduct. Yesterday they kept sober; crowded to the polls, and only voted one time. No assistant convictions there as elsewhere, but the absolute certainty of being put into the "cage" and compelled to pick "oakum" for a week, or "work" at the method of treadmill. The certainty of this method of treatment has a very sobering and salutary effect upon their fine sensibilities, and keeps them, to them has a very sobering and salutary effect upon their fine sensibilities, and keeps them from the perpetration of disturbances on election day.

They carried hard yesterday for their ticket, but caught out the last vote they could reach; for they were duly sober and civil all day, and behaved even business, and let other people duly alone.

Is This Rain a Hard Winter?

The N. Y. Evening Post is anxious lest the absence of dust city may be obstructed during the coming winter by ice in the harbor. But, unlike most of our contemporary, we will not fret. In this region the knowing ones are willing to wait awhile. The corn husks are said to be remarkably thin—a sure sign, in the old proverb, that the winter will not be severe. A friend at our side assures us that the winter was mild during a series of years, and that he is not to be left behind in the reliability of this sign.

In this connection we would also like to ask the question scientific in matters of climatology, whether there is any reason to suppose that the frosts of several preceding seasons, as beginning to do it way of the cause of the, this their coldness? or, whether the frosts and coldness depend upon similar causes?

A Dark Ballot Once More.

It gives us great pleasure to be able to announce to the people of Chicago that we have at length succeeded in our cherished direction. There will be lighting, or noise, or fuss. The polls will be as quiet and orderly as church communion on Sunday. The Irish entirely refrained from their favorite pastime of breaking each other's heads during the voting. Chicago voted with the utmost decorum and gentleness. There was no fighting, no noise, no fuss. The polls were

The Greatest Swindle Yet.

We think we are probably safe in announcing to our readers, in the details of the sale of Fort Dearborn, that we have at last reached the end of the long list of high-handed robbery which has characterized the transaction of the Canal Trustees from the beginning. Fort Dearborn itself, by which the people were to realize a million of dollars for the canal, is Pre-Slavery politicians, combine this sale of over a million of the people's domain for a trifle, with the Washington Union, which wanted all the bonanza in the country during the last Congressional Investigation, explain how the Fort Dearborn deal came to be sold for forty thousand dollars!

Constitutional Amendments in Ohio.

It appears that the amendments to the Constitution proposed to be submitted to the people of Ohio at the October election, are two in number. The first relates to the Supreme Court and Annual Session amendment act.

The second proposed amendment is to abolish the Common Pleas Courts, and to create in lieu thereof Circuit Courts, with a Judge for each county, and a Court of Appeals, consisting of three Judges, to be elected by the people, and to hold their offices for the term of five years.

STATE OF ILLINOIS, Cook County——ss.
In the County Court of said County—Term, September Term, 1857.
James S. Corbett vs. William Corbett, Jr., Mary Ann Corbett, Jr., Peter Corbett and Charles Corbett.

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a writ of attachment, issued out of the office of the Clerk of the County Court of Cook county, under the Seal thereof, bearing date the 8th day of September, A. D. 1857, at the suit of the said James S. Corbett against the said William Corbett, Jr., Mary Ann Corbett, Jr., Peter Corbett and Charles Corbett, was issued to me, directed and delivered, by which writ I am commanded to attach the goods and chattels, lands and tenements of the said William Corbett, Jr., Mary Ann Corbett, Jr., Peter Corbett and Charles Corbett, to the value of two thousand dollars, and to summon them to appear before the said Court, on the first day of the next term thereof, to be holden at the City Hall in the city of Chicago, on the first Monday in November, A. D. 1857, to give security for their costs, and to answer unto the said James S. Corbett in a plea of trespass on the case, and also in a plea of trespass and ejectment for the premises described in the declaration filed in said cause, and to make known that unless they appear and plead, or cause the same to be done, the said James S. Corbett may have judgment against them by default. Now, therefore, notice is given, that I will, on Monday, the 5th day of October, A. D. 1857, levy upon and take into my possession the following described property, to wit: All the right, title, interest and estate of the said William Corbett, Jr., Mary Ann Corbett, Jr., Peter Corbett and Charles Corbett, in and to the following described real estate, situated in the county of Cook and State of Illinois, to wit: The north half of the south-east quarter of the north-west quarter, the north-east quarter of the south-west quarter, and the north-west quarter of the south-east quarter of section number thirty-two (32), in township number forty-two (42) north of range number thirteen (13) east of the third principal meridian, and all the right, title, interest and estate of the said William Corbett, Jr., Mary Ann Corbett, Jr., Peter Corbett and Charles Corbett, in and to the following described real estate, situated in the county of Cook and State of Illinois, to wit: The
